

To whom it may concern,

Please find below a press release from 2524 (Oakington) Squadron of the Air Training Corps (ATC) concerning our annual presentation evening held on Saturday 26th November 2005. The pages below give a brief overview of the evening both in words and pictures, highlighting the key events

2524 Squadron is part of the premier national uniformed voluntary youth organisation in the country, the Air Training Corps. The ATC aims to promote and encourage a practical interest in aviation, provide training that will be useful in both service and civil life, whilst fostering the spirit of adventure. We aim to develop the qualities of leadership and good citizenship amongst all squadron members, both adult volunteers and cadets.

We would be very grateful if you would be able to publish some details of the presentation evening in your paper.

Yours Sincerely,

Ben Mackman

Civilian Instructor

PRESS RELEASE

2524 (Oakington) Squadron Air Training Corps

On Saturday 26th November 2005, 2524 (Oakington) Squadron of the Air Training Corps (ATC) held their annual presentation evening at the Corporals Mess, Waterbeach Army Barracks. The evening was a great opportunity for the parents and friends of the cadets to see the achievements of the cadets and squadron throughout the year.

Over 120 guests attended the evening including Group Captain Nigel Beet, Station Commander of RAF Brampton, Wyton and Henlow who was the Reviewing Officer for the night and presented many of the cadets with certificates and awards. Following the presentations Group Captain Beet highlighted the success of the squadron and showed his pleasure in seeing the great deal of unity between the cadets and the dedication of the staff and civilian committee. Also present was Group Captain Jon Ford, Regional Commandant of Central and East Region of the ATC.

Highlights of the night included the presentation of best cadet to Cadet Warrant Officer Alan Starling and also a commemorative tankard presented to the Commanding Officer of the squadron, Flight Lieutenant Philip Starling on behalf of the cadets and staff for ten years service in the position.

A good time was had by all.
