

2331 (St Ives) Squadron Air Training Corps

NEWS RELEASE    NEWS RELEASE    NEWS RELEASE

---

Sunday 25th June 2006 - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

---BEGINS---

Victory for St. Ives Air Cadets

Fifteen Cadets of 2331 (St. Ives) Squadron ATC competed against 29 other units of Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire Wing to win the Annual Wing Field competition.

Cadet Warrant Officer (CWO) Lyndsay McGregor led her squadron to victory in the Annual Wing Field Day held at RAF Wyton over the weekend of 24-25th June. The thirty squadrons of Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire Wing competed over two days covering many aspects of the Air Training Corps training syllabus including Aircraft Recognition, first aid, and service knowledge. "The cadets have been training hard for the last three months and all their hard work has paid off, I am immensely proud of them all" said Flt Lt Jayne Treutlein, Commanding Officer. As well as winning the overall competition, the squadron also attained a third place in the Annual Drill Competition. CWO McGregor said, "the Team were a pleasure to work with, however we could not have done this without the backup of our Civilian Committee who catered for us and our squadron staff who have supported us during this weekend".

CWO McGregor also received, from Group Captain John Ford, Regional Commandant, Central and East Region, the Brackenborough Bowl for best Female cadet of Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire Wing, and the Parker Britannia Trophy for outstanding achievement in aviation. CWO McGregor summed up this weekend by saying "this has been the best weekend in my Cadet Career so far".

--- ENDS ---

The Air Training Corps is a National Youth Organisation affiliated to the Royal Air Force. It is open to girls and boys from the ages of 13 to 20. All Staff members are volunteers.

2331 (St Ives) Squadron parade at RAF Wyton on Tuesday and Thursday evenings and currently recruit new members on a monthly basis.

---CONTACT---

Jayne Treutlein, Commanding Officer 2331 (St Ives) Squadron ATC, 29 Edinburgh Drive, St Ives CAMBS PE27 3DA, 07939 716990, jayne.t@virgin.net

