March Squadron's weekend sporting success

The weekend proved a real sporting success for March squadron as they gained honours on both the Saturday and Sunday.

On Saturday at RAF Cosford, cadet Hannah Foad, was part of the winning junior Region hockey team as they became Corps champions. Hannah had previously played for the Wing team. The Corps Championships took place at RAF Cosford where Central and East Region took on the 5 other Regions in a round-robin competition. They were unbeaten over all five matches.

On Sunday March took a team to the Wing Cross Country Championships at Bassingbourn Barracks. Against a strong field from 30 squadrons and in muddy conditions cadet Lauren Arnold secured individual gold in the Junior girls event and now hope to represent the Wing in the Region Championships in December.
