PRESS RELEASE

March Cadets step out on Duke of Edinburgh's Award Practice

Six cadets took a step closer to their Bronze Duke of Edinburgh Award with a weekend practise expedition north of Peterborough.

Lessons learnt back at Squadron were put to good practice as the cadets planned their own routes and meals and prepared kit before setting off for the chosen area.

Using the Sacrewell Farm and Country Centre north of Peterborough as base the cadets navigated their chosen route which brought them to the camp site. There they were required to set up camp and cook their own meals.

On day two they had to clear the camp and navigate the second leg of route. Some 16 miles were covered over the two days and the practice will be invaluable for the main camp in the spring. March Squadron is very active with the Duke of Edinburgh's Award scheme with a number of cadets working towards both Bronze and Silver Awards.
