PRESS RELEASE

One chance to bid in Air Cadet Auction for Keech Cottage

A boxing glove signed and authenticated by Amir Khan is one of only 50 items to be auctioned on Friday 6th October 7.30pm at Shuttleworth College, Old Warden Park, in aid of Keech Cottage Children's Hospice in Luton.

22 (Sandy) Squadron Air Cadets came up with the idea after seeing a presentation and decided to do more to raise funds for the Hospice, which cares for babies and children with life limiting illnesses from birth to 18 years old.

Amongst other items are a signed pen from the Prime Minister, a signed Red Arrows print, Champagne, a signed Renault Cap by Alonzo, a winch Glider trial, tickets to Kensington Palace and the Royal Dress Collection and a Gas Barbecue. The Commanding Officer Flt. Lt. Margaret Bell said "The Cadets have worked really hard on this project, and there is something for everyone to bid for, admission is free and auction lot programmes are £1. all proceeds will go to Keech Cottage, so I hope everyone will support the Cadets and Keech Cottage and join us for a fun packed evening." Light refreshments will be available and the bar will be open. The Auctioneer for the night is John Pilgrim from BBC Three Counties Radio.

Guests include the High Sheriff of Bedfordshire Mr Richard Banks, the Town Mayor and Mayoress of Sandy and Councillors, and the Town Mayor and her Consort from Biggleswade.
