PRESS RELEASE

Henlow Cadets go Green

Air Cadets from 2482 (Henlow) Squadron have been out in the community recently assisting in planting 150 trees of mixed varieties on a one acre plot of farmland between Henlow and Clifton for the benefit of the community and to encourage wildlife as part of a local conservation project.

Corporal Bethany Parkinson and Cadets Naomi Parkinson, Guy Walker, Matthew Betts and Tim Betts who all attend Samuel Whitbread Community College assisted the 'Henlow Conservation and P3 Group' along with other volunteers from the community planted the trees on a area which was once covered in woodland and had become too wet for growing crops.

The organiser Martin Knight said "I was very pleased with the cadet's efforts and to see them very smartly turned out" and Corporal Bethany Parkinson from Shefford said "It was lots of fun and it will be good to come back in a few years and see a forest".

2482 Henlow Squadron is currently recruiting male and female cadets aged 13-18 years and parade Tuesdays and Thursday nights 1930 - 2130.
