PRESS RELEASE

△ Cadet Sgt Mark Redrup of 1003 (Leighton Buzzard) Squadron Air Training has recently achieved the honour of playing football for the Corps team against the RAF. Mark was successful in reaching the Corps team after trials at Wing & Region Level. He played an excellent game scoring the opening goal for the Corps which helped the team beat the RAF. He said "It was a great experience and to score the first goal was something special". Mark has also represented the Squadron and Beds & Cambs Wing in others sports and is a keen Milton Keynes Dons fan.

Flt Lt Paul Weston Officer Commanding 1003 said "Mark is a very good all round sportsman who enjoys all he takes part in and as a Corps representative the whole Squadron is proud of his achievements".

If you interested in joining the Air Training Corps as a Cadet and aged between 13 - 16 years old or as a adult member of staff please call 01525 851728 Mondays & Thursday 19:00 - 21:00
