PRESS RELEASE

New Commanding Officer for 1985 (Flitwick) Squadron

1985 (Flitwick) Sqn are pleased and proud to announce the handover of command from longstanding Flt. Lt. Gary Thomas to Flt. Lt. Lorraine Buggs. They would also like to welcome Miss Ceri Llewellyn as a Civilian Instructor.

Flt. Lt Buggs has transferred from 1003 (Leighton Buzzard) Squadron, where she has been a Squadron Officer since 2002. Prior to that, she was a Civilian Instructor and a Cadet at the same Squadron, achieving the top rank of Cadet Warrant Officer, and winning the Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire Wing's highest accolade - Best Cadet in the Wing.

Miss Llewellyn has been with the squadron since April, but recently received her CRB clearance, and is now a fully-fledged member of the Squadron Staff. She will be mainly responsible for the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme and Adventure Training, having passed her Duke of Edinburgh's Gold Award, and spent time backpacking and ice-climbing in Norway.
