PRESS RELEASE

Cadets greet St George at Charity Ball

Cadets from 22 (Sandy) Squadron assisted in getting the Town's St George's Day Charity Ball off in true style with a Guard of Honour for the guests, which included the Mayor and Mayoress, Cllr David and Mrs Rosemary Gale, and various Town Councillors.

The event held at Shuttleworth College proved to be a busy evening for the Cadets, with meeting and greeting the guests, handing out red roses to the ladies and bottled refreshments to the gentlemen, as well as assisting with the two raffles.

Cpl Adam Randall was privileged during the evening to be able to tell the Guests about the Squadrons forthcoming Grand Charity Auction in aid of Keech Cottage Children's Hospice, which is supported by the Mayor and the Councillors. He explained it was the Cadets idea as they had previously had a presentation from the fundraiser at the Hospice, and had raised money for them last year, but they wanted to do more on a grander scale for the children, as they were so fortunate themselves not to be in a position of having a life limiting illness. Cpl Randall gained a huge round of applause, and following this the guests wanted to know what they could do to help.

Many Guests commented on how smart and highly groomed the Cadets were, especially their shoes, and how polite and well mannered. The evening raised approximately £700 for Charity. Grateful thanks go to photographer Paul Quince for donating two photographs of the Cadets during the evening.
