PRESS RELEASE

Cadet says goodbye after 7 years Service

A special Presentation was made to Cdt Sgt Damien Mullens from 22 (Sandy) Squadron on 25th May in recognition of his 7 years Service with the Corps. Damien, who was 20 on the 25th has had to leave due to age. Sgt Mullens was one of two Cadets that came under the old regime of rules, so he was permitted to stay during the change over period. He joined in 1999, the year before the Commanding Officer took over the Squadron, and it was sad to see him leave, as he has always been “part of the furniture”, and he will be missed.

The Squadron Commander Flt. Lt. Margaret Bell presented him with a framed photo collage of some of his activities at the Squadron, and the Cadets signed a card. We all wish him the best of luck and hope he will return at some point to visit.

22 Squadron are actively recruiting Cadets both male and female age 13 plus, log on to the website at www.sandy-aircadets.org.uk or ring 01234 307776 for further information.
