PRESS RELEASE

22 (Sandy) Squadron said goodbye to Cadet James Coates recently who left to join the Army Air Corps. Presently undertaking training he will be part of the ground crew on the Apache. We wish him well.

Six Cadets are taking part in the Wing Easter Camp in Norfolk, undertaking Adventure Training exercises including abseiling. Also during the Easter holidays Cpl Robert Young has been selected to go on a two week overseas camp in Cyprus.

Later in the year the Commanding Officer Flt. Lt. Margaret Bell has been selected to attend an International Air Cadet Exchange to the Netherlands, where she will be escorting Cadets from the United Kingdom for a two week stay. There they will meet Cadets and Staff from other Countries and follow a programme of cultural activities in and around Amsterdam.

The Squadron is actively recruiting Cadets both male and female age 13 plus, log on to the website at www.sandy-aircadets.org or ring 01234 307776 for further information.
