PRESS RELEASE

10F (LUTON AIRPORT) SQUADRON – VETERANS DAY PARADE 2007

Three Cadets from 10F (Luton Airport) Squadron, Air Training Corps were invited to take part in the Annual Veterans Day Parade in Luton Town Centre on Saturday 7th July 2007. Their main task on the day was to provide support for the Veterans, but they were also chosen to carry standards.

Cdt Sgt Stephen Howell was chosen to carry the National Standard and to lead the parade, Cdt Sgt Richard Baker carried the Royal Air Force Association Standard and Cdt Ryan Honour was chosen to carry the Squadron Banner.

Cdt Sgt Howell also participated in a drill display, while the other Cadets helped with the Security on the day, looking after the possessions of the Veterans.

The Commanding Officer, Flt Lt Murad RAFVR(T) was quoted "The three Cadets did very well today. To be asked to carry one Standard is good, but to be asked to carry three is great. We are very proud, as a Squadron to be able to participate in such events, and I am proud to be the Commanding Officer of such a magnificent Squadron".

10F (Luton Airport) Squadron is currently recruiting young people between 13 and 16. Please contact the Squadron on 01582 454452 for further details.
