Cadets on Parade

Last weekend (23/24th June) Air Cadets from 2484 Squadron (Bassingbourn) took part, along with 29 other Squadrons from Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire, in the Wing Field Weekend at RAF Wyton.

The cadets took part in various competitions during the weekend, ranging from Drill to tasks requiring logical and strategic thinking. The weekend culminated in the Annual Review of the Wing.

Annual Honours and the weekend's prizes were presented by the Officer Commanding Royal Air Force Brampton, Wyton and Henlow – Group Captain GJ Bruce, MBE MA FCIPD RAF. The arrival of the Group Captain was heralded by a fly past of a WWII Spitfire from the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight.

Sgt Montrose of Royston said “the Squadron were particularly proud of their performance in the Drill Competition in the face of overwhelming competition. Even the weather didn't dampen our spirits – the final parade was moved into one of the huge aircraft hangars at RAF Wyton!

The Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire Wing consists of 29 Squadrons from as far afield as Ely, Luton and Spalding and consisting of over 500 cadets.
