

115 (Peterborough) Squadron celebrates success

Cadets, Staff, Civilian Committee and parents gathered in the grandeur of Peterborough's Town Hall function room for the squadron's annual review and awards evening. Nearly 150 people attended the event, including guest of honour Wing Commander J Kelly, Officer Commanding Support Wing, RAF Wittering.

The evening started with a review of the previous year, which included a video and picture slide show detailing many of the events from 2006, including Adventure Training, Flying, Parades, the Squadron's Summer Ball and social events.

Following this, the squadron's awards were presented. They included best sporting achievement, highest attendance, highest exam results, best NCO, and best overall cadet. There were also presentations for recent examination success and promotions.

The reviewing Officer, Wing Commander Kelly, was very impressed with the squadron, "It is clear that everyone involved with this squadron is having a lot of fun, I wish I had joined the Air Cadets when I was younger!"
