PRESS RELEASE

Lest We Forget

Cadets from 1451 (Haverhill) Squadron marked Remembrance Day with a series of parades throughout the day in and around the town.

In the morning Cpl Darren Davis (16) represented the Squadron as a standard bearer with the Haverhill branch of the Royal British Legion to mark the two minute silence held up and down the country. Whilst this was taking place Cadets and Staff were making their way to the RAF Wrattling Common airfield memorial to mark Remembrance Day alongside the Royal Air Force Association and the Bomber Command Association.

In the afternoon Cadets and Staff marched through the town centre to lie wreathes on the memorial and crosses on War Graves. This was followed by a church service. As well as the Squadron parading Sgt Laura Cushen (17) was selected to parade the banner on behalf of the woman's branch of the Royal British Legion Haverhill and Cdt Kirsty Jaeger (16) carried the Union Flag at the head of the parade.

Squadron Warrant Officer Chris Wilsher said "The Light Blue footprint was clearly visible in the town this year as the Cadets marched with pride to represent themselves, the Royal Air Force and all victims of conflict"

The Squadron is currently recruiting Staff and Cadets, anyone interested can visit the Squadron on Mondays and Wednesdays evenings between 19:15 and 21:30, at The Cadet Centre, Withersfield Road, Haverhill or email 1451Sqn@BedsCambsWgATC.org for further information.
