PRESS RELEASE

CELEBRATIONS ALL ROUND AS THE HEReward WAY IS COMPLETED

There were celebrations all round on Sunday as the final 16 miles of the 110 mile Hereward Way were completed.

Sixteen cadets from 1220 (March) Squadron ATC walked into Oakham Station at the end of an epic nine leg adventure that started back in April at Harling Road Station in Norfolk.

Cadet Simon Foster had the honour of being the only cadet to complete the entire route with several close behind with just one or two stages missing.

Cadet Luke Goodall was using the weekend as practice for his Silver Expedition having received his Bronze award that weekend.

The end of the journey also meant the completion of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award Bronze expedition for thirteen of the cadets. The final sixteen miles were split into two days with an overnight camp. The Bronze Award cadets were split into two groups who set off half an hour apart, the remaining cadets and supervising staff following as a third group. March Squadron has a high take-up rate for the award with some 70% of cadets having achieved an award or working towards one..
