PRESS RELEASE

CADETS JOIN FORCES FOR DUKE OF EDINBURGH'S AWARD SILVER EXPEDITON.

Cadets from two local squadrons joined up to take part in a successful Duke Of Edinburgh's Award Silver expedition over the October half term.

Sergeant Toni Arnold, Corporal Hannah Foad and Corporal Luke Goodall from 1220 (March) Squadron were joined by Tom Scrivener from 2331 (St Ives) Squadron on the three day expedition across the Yorkshire Dales.

Using film and TV as their theme they planned a route that took them to places used for filming the likes of Emmerdale, Robin Hood and the Calendar Girls. One particular stop took them into the village of Kettlewell, home of the original Calendar Girls.

Despite very cold overnight temperatures the daytime conditions were almost perfect for the 55 km walk starting at Clapham, in the shadow of Ingleborough and ending in Buckden, Wharfedale.

Monitored by a local Duke of Edinburgh's Award assessor they were all pleased to have successfully completed one of the toughest parts of the award.
