

news release

Ref : 1094-9-01-07

15 September 2007

BEN'S DOUBLE SUCCESS

Air Cadet Corporal Ben Montgomery has beaten Cadets from all over East Anglia & the East Midlands to become winner of the Central & East Region Aircraft Recognition Competition at RAF Wittering recently. The Competition is for the best cadets from each Wing throughout the Central & East Region of the Air Training Corps.

Ben gained his place in the competition by winning the Bedfordshire & Cambridgeshire Wing Competition earlier in the year.

Ben also gained a third place in the Aircraft Modelling Competition held at the same time with his model of a Spitfire.

He will now go forward to represent the Central & East Region at the national competition later in the year.

Ben is a cadet with 1094 (Ely) Squadron of the Air Training Corps which meets twice weekly at its Headquarters in Heaton Drive, Ely. The Squadron is holding a recruitment evening for new recruits on Wednesday 26 th September at 8 pm. For further information please contact Alan Human on 01353 665331 or enquiry@1094SqnATC.org for further information.

Enc: (attachment)

Ben with his Model Spitfire & Winners Certificate. (Ben with model & Cert2.jpg)