Sawston Cadets Help Air Display Teams

Cadets from 2461 (Sawston) Squadron of the Air Training Corps spent a very hot Friday recently helping two Air Display Teams at the Lowestoft Sea Front Air Festival

The cadets and staff from 2461 Squadron were at Lowestoft to help the Red Arrows and the Typhoon Display Teams.

On arrival at Lowestoft some of the cadets met Flt Lt Andy Robins (Red 10) who is the Red Arrows road manager and Senior Aircraftman Liam O'Keefe who is red 10's ground crew who very kindly agreed to have a photo taken with the cadets.

The cadets spent the day handing out leaflets for the red arrows whilst members of staff were selling literature for the Typhoon display pilot Flt Lt Charlie Matthews who is raising funds for the RAF Association, RAF Benevolent Fund and Coningsby Helping Hands.

WO Tim Barker Officer Commanding 2461 Said ' It was a joy to see the Vulcan in our skies once more at such a well attended East Anglican Air Show.

If you are between the ages of 13-18 Years and you wish to know more then come to the Squadron on a Monday or Thursday between 7pm – 9.30pm at their HQ in Hayfield Avenue Sawston or Ring 01223 834585 at parade times.
