PRESS RELEASE

A SUCCESSFUL WING FIELD WEEKEND

1220 (March) Sqn completed yet another successful Wing Field Weekend at RAF Wyton.

The team of 12 cadets competing against 28 other squadrons from the Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire Wing scored well across the board finally finishing in 13th place overall. The Drill Team scored their highest place for at least ten years with an impressive 8th place.

Sunday morning saw the formal review of the Wing, this year taken by Commanding Officer Air Cadets, Air Commodore Ian Stewart. Adult Warrant Officer Tammy Curwen received her Long Service medal recognising 12 years commitment to the Air Cadets as a staff member.

There was also a surprise in store for Cadet Lauren Arnold who was announced as the Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire Wing Female Sports Cadet of the year. She was presented with her trophy in front of the assembled parade of over 300 cadets and staff.

Corporal Luke Goodall was an individual event winner on the weekend winning the Aero-Modelling Scratch built class and coming second in the individual model competition receiving his medals on the final parade.

A fantastic weekend was finished off with a low level flypast by the BBMF Avro Lancaster.
