1094 SQUADRON'S BUSY WEEKEND

Cadets & Staff of 1094 (Ely) Squadron of the Air Training Corps have just completed one of its busiest weekends of the year. On Saturday 36 Staff & Cadets were out in Ely City Centre collecting for the Royal British Legion's Poppy Appeal.

On Sunday morning 1094 Squadron Cadets were at the Remembrance Day Service in Sutton Church which was taken by the Squadron Chaplain Rev'd Mark Amey. 1094 Squadron was also represented at the Service of Remembrance held by veterans of 115 Squadron at their Memorial on the site of the old RAF Witchford.

Meanwhile most of the Squadron Paraded at the Remembrance Day Service held in Ely Cathedral followed by the wreath laying and act of Remembrance held at the War Memorial on Ely Market Square. The Squadron Banner was paraded at this event by Cdt Sgt Simon Pitman, the Squadron also provided escorts for the Ely Branch of the RBL's Standard.

In the afternoon a Contingent from 1094 Squadron, led by the Squadron Warrant Officer WO R Buchet; travelled to Soham to participate in their Remembrance Day Parade & Church Service.

news release

In the evening a small number of Cadets participated in the Remembrance Concert & Parade of Standards held by Littleport Royal British Legion at Littleport Leisure Centre.

These events are an opportunity for the Cadets to represent the Royal Air Force in the Local towns & Villages, the cadets will now return to their other activities which include Flying, Gliding, Rifle Shooting & training in aviation related subjects.

The Squadron is always looking for new recruits & now offers a fast flowing, structured training regime for both new Cadets & Staff at its Headquarters in Heaton Drive, Ely.
