PRESS RELEASE

MARCH CADETS SHOW OFF THEIR ACADEMIC SIDE

The academic side of cadets at 1220 (March) Sqn is shining through with recent successes in the BTEC qualifications.

The ATC offer cadets the chance to study for three BTEC qualifications; Public Service, Aviation Studies and Music. This year March cadets have already achieved several successes in both Public Services and Aviation Studies.

On Friday 21st November Squadron Leader Tony Bartlett, Wing Staff Officer, presented the cadets with their certificates:

Sgt Toni Arnold – Aviation Studies and Public Service

Cpl Hannah Foad – Aviation Studies

Cpl Luke Goodall – Aviation Studies

Sgt Alexa Ferguson – Aviation Studies

Not available on the night Flight Sergeant Daniel Smith - Aviation Studies and Public Service. The level of achievement was evident in the pass rates achieved for Public Service with both Daniel and Toni achieving the highest mark of Distinction Star. Interim reports show that further top results are expected.

The BTEC Syllabus is carefully integrated into the regular training program and much of what the cadets do day to day counts towards the end mark so keeping the pressure of additional study to a minimum. Each BTEC counts as 2 (Aviation Studies) or 4 (Public Service) GCSE grade A to C passes.

Sqn Leader Bartlett also presented Corporals Hannah Foad and Luke Goodall with their well-earned Duke of Edinburgh's Silver Awards. The Squadron now has three cadets with Silver and all working towards their Gold and well as many Bronze award holders working towards their Silver.
