PRESS RELEASE

Contrary to what seems to be a growing popular belief, remembrance isn't just the reserve of one cold day in November. Last Sunday, seven cadets and one member of staff from 207 (Cranfield) Squadron Air Cadets attended a parade in Leighton Buzzard to commemorate the Battle of Britain in 1940. The cadets were joined by comrades from 1003 (Leighton Buzzard) Squadron and current serving Royal Air Force (RAF) personnel.

The parade marched through the town and to the church where a short service was held to remember and thank those who lost their lives in the Battle of Britain. Cadet Elizabeth Shiner, 14, commented:

'The parade was well turned out and it was such a great experience to parade with the RAF.'

207 Squadron are now recruiting new cadets from the age of 13 to 18. If you are interested in becoming a member, please contact the Squadron on 01234 752030 or call in at their Headquarters off Merchants Lane, Cranfield between the times of 7:30pm and 9:30pm on a Monday or Thursday evening.
