PRESS RELEASE

YORKSHIRE DALES EXPEDITIONS

10 Cadets from 1220 (March) Squadron Air Cadets were sent packing to the Yorkshire Dales over their Easter holidays in order to complete the expeditions needed for their Duke of Edinburgh's Award. 6 cadets completed their 3 day Silver expedition while the other four worked towards their Gold which they hope to complete in August this year.

While away, the cadets were able to practice their navigational skills while also enduring the hills and the weight of their rucksacks. The aim of these expeditions is for young people to become completely self dependant by planning their own route, carrying their own kit and cooking for themselves.

Having completed the expedition, 2 cadets Sergeant Alexa Ferguson and Corporal Alex Ogden have both finished their Silver award and when relevant paperwork has been completed will be presented with their Silver certificate and badge.
