PRESS RELEASE

D OF E SUCCESS

Cadets from 2484 (Bassingbourn) Squadron are celebrating after having the most successful period in their history involved with the Duke of Edinburgh's award scheme. The squadron has achieved 26 awards of which 23 are at bronze level and 3 at silver.

The award requires Cadets to partake in a range of activities to complete the four sections of the award, volunteering, physical, skills and expeditions. To complete these Cadets have undertaken learning in things like aviation studies, first aid and even worked with the Fire Service.

Cadet Corporal Adam Kelly said "The Award helps members of the Squadron improve as individuals and as part of a team, developing existing skills and learning new ones".

All eligible Cadets are now taking part in the award of which seven members of the Squadron working towards their gold awards.

2484 (Bassingbourn) Squadron is open to young men and women aged between 13 and 17 years old. We meet on Mondays and Wednesdays between 18:45 and 21:45 at Bassingbourn Barracks. For more information please contact 01763 249156.
