PRESS RELEASE

Wing Easter Camp

275 Cadets and 70 adults from Air Cadet Units across Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire, attended the Annual Beds & Cambs Wing Easter Camp, this year held at Napier Barracks, Shorncliffe, Folkestone.

Cadets took part in many activities over the week long camp, including field training, shooting, climbing, raft building and an overnight field exercise. A number of cadets were also very lucky to have a flight in a Chinook from 27 Sqn RAF. Sqn Ldr Tony Bartlett, Wing Staff Officer Air said "The cadets were very excited when they realised that the Chinook had landed in the training area to take them for a short flight, I am very grateful to 27 Squadron for their visit".

The cadets celebrated the end of camp with a final parade where the winners of the week-long Flight competition were announced as K Flight lead by Flight Sergeant Hooper, from 2461 (Sawston) Squadron.
