

Sporting Success for Sawston Air Cadets

Air Cadets from 2461 (Sawston) Squadron Air Training Corps had very successful events in Sport recently when they took part in Wing Netball, Football and Rugby trials at RAF Brampton.

The girls Netball team, Cadets Elise Fletcher, Lauren Baird and Sarah Cattle with other cadets from 134 (Bedford), 511 (Ramsey) and 2484 (Bassingbourn) Squadrons took first place with Cadet Sarah Cattle from 2461 being selected to represent the Wing at the Inter Wing Competition which is to be held at RAF Cranwell in February.

Cadet Sam Long took part in the Rugby trials and earned himself a place in the Wing team to compete in the Inter Wing Competition also.

Sergeant George Blackwell and Corporals Andrew Finlay and Ben Harradine took part in the Football trials and also earned themselves a place in the Wing team to take part in the Inter Wing Competition which is to take place at RAF Cottesmore in March.

Warrant Officer Tim Barker Officer Commanding 2461 said "It was very encouraging to see the cadets being so successful in the sporting activities and I look forward to their endeavours at Regional level.

The Squadron meets every Monday and Thursday between 7pm- 9.30pm if you are between the ages of 13-17 years and you wish to know more then come along to 2461 HQ in Hayfield Avenue Sawston on any parade night or ring 01223 834585 at parade times.
