

Sawston Cadets Help at Waddington Airshow

Cadets from 2461 (Sawston) Squadron of the Air Cadet Organisation spent a weekend recently as guests of the Typhoon display team.

The cadets from Sawston made their way to RAF Conningsby on the Friday where they spent the weekend as guests of 29 squadron and the Typhoon display team.

Upon arrival at Raf Conningsby the cadets and staff of 2461 were shown to their accommodation before being given a 2½ hour guided tour of the Typhoon by Sergeant Jason Fisher. The cadets were given a chance to look in the cockpit of the Typhoon and saw the entire workings of the Typhoon and the role of 29 squadron.

On the Saturday and Sunday the cadets went to RAF Waddington where they spent the days in the typhoon display tent distributing posters, leaflets and soverneers for the display team.

The cadets also got to meet Sqn Ldr Scott Loughran again the Typhoon Display Team pilot who was the guest of honour at their presentation night earlier in the year.

Cpl Andrew Finlay Said” I thoroughly enjoyed the Airshow and all the attractions and talking to the pilots about their different aircraft and I highly recommend airshows to anyone else.”

Flt Lt Marion Watson Said” The visit to the Typhoon was very interesting and I was very impressed with its capabilities 29 squadron made us most welcome and we had a very busy but very enjoyable weekend.”

By CI Sheena Pugh
SMCO For 2461

Editors Notes

If you wish to know more I can be contacted on 01223 560896