PRESS RELEASE

MARCH AIR CADETS GAIN THEIR WINGS

During the half term holidays two cadets from 1220 (March) Squadron attended 611 Volunteer Gliding Squadron at Watton to take part in a gliding scholarship course. The course enables cadets to learn the basics of non-powered flight by working through a written and practical syllabus.

With a week of fantastic weather both cadet Flight Sergeant Alexa Ferguson and Corporal Alex Ogden were able to complete the course and fly solo, earning them the coveted silver wings.

Five cadets from the March squadron have gained their wings this year which is a great achievement.

For further information on 1220(March) Squadron log onto the website at www.1220atc.org.uk or Tel: 01354 651788.

Address: 1220 (March) Squadron Air Training Corps, Gas Road, March. PE15 9LU.
Parade nights: Tuesday and Friday between 1900-2130hrs.

Colin Arnold
Flying Officer
for OC Squadron
