On parade in support for Armed Forces Day

Members of staff at South Holland District Council came out in support of Armed Services Day on Friday 26 June by wearing their uniforms to work and bringing in memorabilia of their Military Service.

Jeff, who is the Commanding Officer of 272 (Wisbech) Squadron Air Cadets said:

'This is just a small way of showing the support of the community for the men and women who serve this country in uniform. I have a son currently serving with the Royal Navy in the Gulf and I am proud to wear my uniform to show support of him and everyone else currently serving'.
