PRESS RELEASE

AWARDS GALORE AT 2484

Cadets from 2484 (Bassingbourn) Squadron have celebrated their achievements from the past six months at a presentation evening held at ATR Bassingbourn.

The Squadron was delighted that the Camp Commandant Lt Col. S Waddington REME was able to attend the evening to distribute awards and address the cadets, staff, civilian committee and parents. Also in attendance was the Mayor of Royston Councillor Paul Grimes, local Royal British Legion and Royal Air Force Association officials and members of the Bassingbourn community.

In total, 126 awards were presented to Cadets on the Squadron including: 26 Duke of Edinburgh awards, 22 leading Cadets classification awards and 12 Wing sports representation awards. Alongside these awards, 17 Cadets were enrolled by the Wing Padre Rev Steve Pullen.

During the evening the Cadets gave a dynamic display of the activities that Cadets take part in which involved plenty of audience participation, especially during the first aid display! The evening also included a march past of the Squadron banner resulting in huge applause from the 180 parents and guests.

Cadet Mateusz Bialowas (16) who joined the Squadron last summer said “The evening was my first of this kind since joining the Air Cadets everyone worked together to achieve a great display. I am really proud of all that I have done so far at the Squadron”
