PRESS RELEASE

Air Cadets Parade for War Memorial Rededication

Air Cadets from 22 (Sandy) Squadron were invited to Parade for a Rededication Service at the War Memorial in Baldock at the weekend.

The Service was organised by the Royal British Legion, and was conducted by the Rev Tony Ruffell, County Chaplain, Royal British Legion Hertfordshire. Major Rod Eales (Ret'd) officiated as the Parade Marshal.

Royal British Legion Standards paraded and following the Last Post and Reveille, the Exhortation and Kohima over 100 names of those lost between 1914 -1945 were read out. This concluded the Service.

The Cadets received many compliments following the Parade, especially from the Parade Marshal, Major Eales who said "the Cadets were a credit to their uniform they wear and the Royal Air Force, they were immaculate in their appearance and deportment".

Refreshments were served following the Parade.
