

Sawston Air Cadets help at Fun Run

Air Cadets from 2461 (Sawston) Squadron, Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire Wing spent a hot Sunday morning helping the organisers of the 24th Annual Sawston Fun Run and Walk to erect tents and man a water station on the 4.8 mile route recently.

The Charities who benefited from the Fun Run were Papworth Hospital, Addenbrookes Hospital, Arthur Rank Hospice, The Sawston Cinema Project, The MS Society and Opportunities Without Limits to name just a few.

Three cadets from 2461 also ran in the race they were Cpl Andrew Finlay in a time of 40 minutes followed by Cdt Elise Fletcher in a time of 42 minutes followed closely by Cpl Amy Barker in a time of 43 minutes. The Squadron also had their recruiting team in attendance who spoke to many perspective cadets and staff.

Cdt Elise Fletcher said” the run was a bit of a challenge but good fun and I enjoyed it”

CI Sheena Pugh the Squadron’s Media & Communications Officer said” This was the fourth year that I have helped at the fun run and it was good to see so many local people turning out to help so many good causes.”

The Squadron meets every Monday and Thursday between 7pm – 9.30pm if you are between the ages of 13-17 years then come along to 2461 ‘s HQ in Hayfield Avenue Sawston on any parade night or ring 01223 834585 at parade times.
