PRESS RELEASE

GLIDING SCHOLARSHIP SUCCESS

Cadet James Lyttle became the most recent cadet from 1220 (March) Squadron Air Cadets to earn a set of Gliding Wings. He joins six other cadets at the squadron who are entitled to wear the coveted Wings making it one of the most successful times for Gliding Scholarships at 1220.

James spent time at 611 Volunteer Gliding School at Watton run by the Air Cadets. While there he successfully completed the required training to earn him a set of Blue Wings, his time was cut short due to poor weather and he hopes to return to convert his wings into a Silver set in due course.

At the age of sixteen James is able to fly a glider before he is old enough to be licensed to drive a motor car. James said "I really enjoyed every element of the training and am proud to have completed the course".
