PRESS RELEASE

The last weekend of the October half term was a very busy one for many cadets and staff of 207 (Cranfield) Squadron ATC. In preparation for Remembrance Sunday, cadets took part in the Royal British Legion's Poppy Appeal. Each year cadets attend the collection outside of the local Budgens and Co-Operative stores, selling poppies to the public to raise money for the cause and this year was no exception. Despite the cold, wet weather, cadets and staff turned up on the Saturday and Sunday to take part and their efforts paid off when each tin became very heavy and very full. Flying Officer Matt Dolton, from 207 Squadron said "Once again it was great to see so many cadets and staff turn out to support the Royal British Legion. It is a very important part of our calendar each year and great to see so many people from the village supporting the collection and wearing their poppies in advance of Sunday's [8th Nov] Remembrance Parade."

If you are aged between 13 and 18 and interested in becoming a member of the Air Training Corps, please contact the Squadron on 01234 752030 or call in at their Headquarters off Merchants Lane, Cranfield between the times of 7:30pm and 9:30pm on a Monday or Thursday evening.
