PRESS RELEASE

2484 REMEMBERS

Air Cadets and Staff from 2484 (Bassingbourn) Squadron have remembered those who have been injured or lost their lives as a result of war by taking part in a number of Remembrance Services in the local area.

The Squadron took part in parades in the villages of Bassingbourn, Meldreth and Melbourn along with a parade through the town of Royston, led by Drum Major Cadet Warrant Officer Martin Goddard and the Squadron Band. During a Service at the War Memorial in Royston, the last post was sounded by Cadet Hollie Woodley, with Sergeant Ben Johnson laying a poppy wreath on behalf of the Squadron.

Cadet Hollie Woodley (15), who was participating in her first event with the Squadron, said "It was an honour and a privilege to play the last post on such an important day."

Ten Cadets also paraded with 2461 (Sawston) Squadron in the village of Sawston, proceeding afterwards to Duxford Imperial War Museum for a Service of Remembrance.

The Squadron has also assisted in collecting for the Poppy Appeal in Royston during the week.

2484 (Bassingbourn) Squadron is open to young men and women aged between 13 and 17 years old. We meet on Mondays and Wednesdays between 18:45 and 21:45 at Bassingbourn Barracks. For more information please contact 01763 249156 or visit our website www.2484aircadets.co.uk.
