PRESS RELEASE

We will remember them

Over 50 Air Cadets & Staff from No 2500 (St Neots) Squadron and their Detached Flight at Cambourne joined together with the Townspeople to remember the fallen over the weekend.

Saturday saw the Cadets assisting with the Poppy Appeal street collection in the St Neots Town, and on Sunday they attended two Services of Remembrance one in St Neots and the other in Eaton Socon.

The Cadets formed up in the Waitrose car park, St Neots on the Sunday morning and marched through the Town, led by the Squadron Band, for a short service at the War Memorial, before a Church Service in St Marys Parish Church, which was conducted by Reverend Dr Paul Andrews.

Flt Lt David Webb, Officer Commanding No 2500 (St Neots) Squadron laid a wreath at the Memorial on behalf of the Air Training Corps, and Sqn Ldr Paul Thomson-Clark laid a wreath on behalf of Bedfordshire & Cambridgeshire Wing ATC. The Union Flag was carried by Cpl Tom Humphrey and the Squadron Banner by Cdt Mark Tyrell-Thompson. The Cadets also conducted the collection in the Church in aid of the Poppy Appeal. Flt Lt Webb remarked "It was very moving to see the Parade and Service of Remembrance so well attended today".
