PRESS RELEASE

BAND ON PARADE

The Air Cadet Band of 1220 (March) Squadron were on parade in Downham Market at the weekend. The Royal British Legion from Norfolk County were parading as part of a service of rededication at St Edmund's Parish Church. The Band lead the parade of approximately 100 from Downham Market Town Hall to the church passing a saluting dais at the War Memorial on route.

For many of the band members this was their first parade, it was also the first parade in the role for the new Drum Major Simon Foster. Despite their initial nerves the band were very smart, played well and kept a good pace for the parade.

Two of the band's trumpeters were not on parade. Sergeant Luke Goodall and Corporal Lauren Arnold travelled to RAF Wittering to take part in a Region competition. They were joined by Corporal James Good from 104 (City of Cambridge) Squadron and formed the fanfare team for the Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire Wing. Prior to the day the trio had never practiced together but put on an excellent performance with their 3 part harmony securing the Silver medal position.
