PRESS RELEASE

As the winter draws in, Saturday 10th October once again provided us with a typically cold British evening. Regardless of the pitfalls of our local weather trends, Air Cadets from 207 (Cranfield) Squadron wrapped up and braved the cold to attend the annual 'Moonraker' sponsored walk in Ampthill, Beds, to raise much need funds for the Ampthill and District Lions Club, who support local charities and organisations.

Having participated for several years, the team from 207 Squadron were, this year, awarded the trophy for collecting the most sponsorship money – a personal best of over £650.

Flight Lieutenant Paul Weston, commanding officer of 207 Sqn said "It's great to see cadets giving up their free time to help a local cause. It's good to see their commitment to our community efforts and the enthusiasm with which they partake in so many varied events".

There is more to the Air Training Corps than learning about aircraft. To see for yourself, if you are aged between 13 and 18, please contact the Squadron on 01234 752030 or call in at their Headquarters off Merchants Lane, Cranfield between the times of 7:30pm and 9:30pm on a Monday or Thursday evening.
