PRESS RELEASE

CADETS HAVE THE MONOPOLY IN LONDON

1220 (March) Squadron took on the full size Monopoly board recently to raise funds for their minibus.

11 cadets and 3 staff completed the monopoly walk around London and in the process raised over £600 towards the upkeep of their minibus.

The walk followed the board as close as possible and covered some 15 miles from the Old Kent Road finishing at the Tate Modern, previously a power station.

Flight Lieutenant Kirsty Burnham, Commanding Officer of 1220 said "This is the first time we had tackled a city walk, March cadets being more used to the open Fens or Yorkshire Dales. They took it in their stride and completed the route in very fast 6 hours".
