PRESS RELEASE

Youth on Parade

1220 (March) Squadron Air Cadet Band were chosen to lead this years annual St Georges Day Parade for Cromwell District Scouts, which was held in Ramsey. The organiser Mr Ed Sowells particularly wanted a youth band to lead the parade which consisted of approximately 360 members of the Scout organisation.

The band at 1220 Squadron has been an ongoing project for over twenty five years and practises regularly on parade evenings. The hard work put in by its current members paid off as they performed well on the day.

During the church service the Cromwell District Scouts presented one of the trumpeters with a new trumpet. Cpl Lauren Arnold was pleased to receive the trumpet and is looking forward to playing it. Band Master Sgt Brian Goodall said "We are currently looking to replace the trumpets we have as they are getting old, the new instrument we have chosen to replace them with allows us to play in both E flat & B flat keys giving us greater flexibility".

The band has a busy time ahead of them as they prepare for more parades during the summer and the annual Bedfordshire & Cambridgeshire Wing Band Competition.
