PRESS RELEASE

2010 OFF TO FLYING START

Sunday 17th January saw Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire Wing gather together to compete for the first trophy of the year in the junior girls netball competition held at RAF Brampton.

Bassingbourn led from start to finish, not losing a single game in the competition with Cadet Aimee Pollack coming out as top goal scorer. The team were supported by Civilian Instructor Samantha Pink and Civilian Instructor Stephanie Trayhurn, both on their first outings as Civilian Instructors. Cadet Evie Kyprianou and Cadet Aimee Pollock will now go on to represent Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire Wing on 31st January at RAF Cranwell.

The day also saw trials for senior football and junior rugby. Officer Cadet Andrew Kyprianou assisted the rugby trials and Flight Sergeant Chris Cox assisted with the football. The rugby trials saw Corporals Cameron Geddes and Tom Jefferies selected to represent Wing, with Sergeants Nick Buckle and Ollie Rudkins along with Corporal Mateusz Bialowas selected to represent the Wing at football.

Cadet Aimee Pollock said "I joined the cadets in November 2009 and this was the first time I have represented the Squadron at sports. I enjoyed the competition and winning made the day even better!"

Civilian Instructor Stephanie Trayhurn added "Once more our cadets displayed the range of talents our Squadron has in its midst as they played some excellent netball, winning all of their games to bring home the Silverware. Well done again to all of the cadets involved".

On Sunday 24th January, Corporal Kyprianou and Cadets Ashton, Hanley, Strong and Weavers were selected to represent the Wing at Senior Hockey.

2484 (Bassingbourn) Squadron is open to young men and women aged between 13 and 17 years old. We meet on Mondays and Wednesdays between 18:45 and 21:45 at Bassingbourn Barracks.
