Oakington Cadets celebrate a year of successes

On Saturday 30th January, over eighty guests gathered in Longstanton to celebrate the success of the cadets of 2524 (Oakington) Squadron Air Training Corps.

In the presence of reviewing officer Air Commodore Jon Ford, the cadets spoke about the activities they had taken part in throughout the year. The culmination of the evening was the presentation of awards by Air Commodore Ford. The prestigious MacCorkindale Shield for the squadron's best cadet was presented jointly to the squadron's most senior cadets, Cadet Warrant Officer Sophie Ellingham and Cadet Warrant Officer James Welch for their efforts in training the cadets and assisting the staff over the past year.

Air Commodore Ford congratulated the cadets on their awards, and thanked the staff, cadets and civilian committee for their efforts during the year.
