

news release

Promotions are in the air at Wisbech

3 cadets at Wisbech Air Cadets have recently been awarded with promotions.

Sergeant Stephen Ferrett who recently was awarded his staff cadet was promoted to the rank of Flight Sergeant after he had shown dedication to the squadron and a complete ability to run the NCO team unaided. His aims in the squadron are to get Wisbech Squadron of cadets compete in more Wing Activities.

Corporal Oliver Grocott and Corporal Daniel Mabbett was each promoted to Sergeant after showing ability and excellent leadership skills. They recently led the squadron at the Wing Field Day where they completed several activities.

When asked the now Sergeant Mabbett said after he was promoted "I hope it can lead me into better things" and the new Sergeant Grocott said "I am very happy and am looking forward to new challenges"

If you would like to come and join in the activities within the squadron then come along on Monday or Thursday Evening at Sandyland Headquarters from 7.00pm to 9.00pm

Pictured: The new Sgt Mabbett (Left) and Sgt Grocott