PRESS RELEASE

Recently, two Air Cadets from 207 (Cranfield) Squadron, Air Training Corps were selected to attend a “Tsu Chu Biz” business course at Cranfield University School of Management in Bedfordshire.

Throughout the week, Cadets Shaun Robinson, 14, and Scott Baker, 13, learned about business acumen. During the course they had to demonstrate how to run a company and competed against 5 other teams. The ‘Operation SPEC’ team managed to beat off the competition, being assessed by 4 independent judges. Owing to their success, the Cadets will now attend the regional final to be held at the MK Dons Football stadium in Milton Keynes later in the year. If they are successful, running their own business could very well become a reality.

“It was a very unique and helpful course. I learnt loads of different things about business” commented Cdt Robinson, while Cdt Baker said this of the course: “It was fantastic. I gained a lot of knowledge about businesses. If given the chance, I would certainly do the course again.”

The Air Cadets always encourage members to take part in extra curricular activities to further their personal development. If you are aged between 13 and 18 and interested in becoming a member, please contact the Squadron on 01234 752030 or call in at their Headquarters off Merchants Lane, Cranfield between the times of 7:30pm and 9:30pm on a Monday or Thursday evening.
