

104 (City of Cambridge) Squadron

730 Newmarket Road

Cambridge

CB5 8RS

PRESS RELEASE

NEW CADETS LEARN THEIR TRADE

Young Air Cadets from 104 (City of Cambridge) Squadron have spent the weekend at their headquarters on Newmarket Road in Cambridge taking part in a basic training weekend.

The cadets have spent months training on Wednesday and Friday evening's learning basic cadet skills such as uniform care, drill, leadership, communications skills, navigation and fieldcraft. Alongside this cadets have been learning about aviation, the Royal Air Force and first aid. The weekend developed the experiences gained in the classroom in a practical environment. The weekend finished with the cadets parading in front of parents and relatives who joined with Squadron staff in celebrating their achievements.

Cadet Scott Dell (14) said "I really enjoyed the weekend especially the fieldcraft and navigation that we did."

Civilian Instructor Ian Griffiths, who co-ordinated the weekend added "The weekend was a total success with cadets able to develop skills they have learnt in the classroom in a practical scenario"

104 (City of Cambridge) Squadron meet on Wednesday and Friday evening at our headquarters on Newmarket Road. For more information about joining as either a cadet or member of staff please contact 01223 295324 (Wed and Fri Evenings) or email info@104atc.org

Pilot Officer Chris Cox RAFVR(T)
Media and Communications Officer

Notes to editor

Picture attached

BTW1 – Cadet Scott Dell receives his certificate from Flight Lieutenant Richard Slack