PRESS RELEASE

CADETS TAKE ON SNOWDONIA

Three cadets from March squadron recently took the opportunity to enjoy Snowdonia at its autumn best, and not a drop of rain in sight!

Cadet Flight Sergeant Toni Arnold, Cadet Sergeant Tim Kightly and Cadet Matthew Wilson took to the hills of Snowdonia. As well as admiring the great views and relishing the challenge of climbing the hills and mountains in the area they also took part in several other activities during the week long course.

Time was also spent exploring the local town of Barmouth, where the rock climbing and abseiling walls are located. The cadets also took part in gorge walking, which was a new experience for some and involves walking and scrambling through water, traversing along rock ledges and climbing up waterfalls. Staying dry isn't an option!

They also tried the high ropes course which is based at the centre itself, which is more than a little unnerving and involves the "leap of faith" by jumping from the top platform to a trapeze bar before being lowered down to earth.
